

Retail Sales Assistant

Sundays

££competitive

A fantastic opportunity has arisen for a proactive and charismatic Retail Sales Assistant to join our team based at our shop in Sandgate Road Folkestone.

Working within a small and friendly retail team where everyone looks out for each other, teamwork, and the ability to build relationships are key to this Sales Assistant role. We are looking for a Retail Sales Assistant who will proactively approach every customer and deliver a true retail customer experience.

As Sales Assistant and your main responsibilities will include:

- Ensure that customer service is not an afterthought but an intrinsic part of the sales process
- Take responsibility for visual presentation and cleanliness of the shop
- Ensure accurate and appropriate advice to ensure that our customers buy the best and relevant products to meet their needs

To be considered for this exciting role, it is desirable but not essential that you have the following:

- Genuine desire to deliver first-class customer service and have a passion for product
- A dedicated and capable retail sales professional who is passionate about selling and has shown they can deliver high performing sales figures
- Ability to work well under pressure whilst prioritising workloads and meeting deadlines
- Self-motivated, shows initiative, confident and a strong team-player

If you want to be part of this exciting time within the company, please send your CV to: contact@southkentmind.org.uk

